

A wide range of chambers and covers in HDPE and steel as standard are designed to meet the specific needs of landfill gas extraction systems.

They are available as circular, square and rectangular design or made to order to suit customer site requirements.

Applications

- Landfill gas extraction systems
- Borehole monitoring

Features

- Light weight HDPE
- Heavy duty steel
- Galvanised or painted
- Hinged or removable lids
- Robust, bespoke designs